FROM THE WORTHY PRESIDENT

Hello Eagles!!

Have you noticed the new addition to the Social Room? Next time you're at the club look to the right of the 'pickle' machine and you'll see all of the Aerie and Auxiliary officers' pictures. It's a really nice touch being able to put a face with a name. Give a big "Thanks" to Bob and Sherry Rohan, Terri Fugleberg, and Cindy Lacey when you see them.

MADAM PRESIDENT FRONT AND CENTER

Greetings everyone,

I am writing this from sunny Florida. The International Grand Eagle Convention in Orlando just wrapped up. It was just amazing, and I can't wait to get back and tell you all about it. Actually it hasn't been so sunny. We had a lightning strike that hit the hotel and knocked out our sound system. Should have heard the "I can't hear you" from the ladies. They fixed it eventually and we continued our meeting.

BAR MANAGER'S CORNER

Wow, summer is going fast, football season will be here before we know it.

For all regular season Bronco games happy hour will run from start of the game to the finish. And check the club about Bronco snacks.

Also, check the club for menus for Tuesday lunches, Friday dinners and Sunday breakfasts.

Until next month,

Kathy

The Aerie has a friendly competition going on with the Auxiliary to see which team can bring in the most new members during these officers' term. And yes, there is a bet. Truthfully, it really doesn't matter which of us wins because we all benefit. Membership keeps our club alive and vibrant so, invite a friend to come down and see our Aerie and what we do. There is that matter of 'bragging rights' though.

The 4th of July potluck lunch was a huge success and the Aerie is planning to do the same thing for Labor Day on Monday, Sept. 1. We'll serve from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. The Aerie will furnish the hamburgers, hot dog, and condiments. Bring a side dish or dessert to share with your brother and sisters, and join in the fun of a great meal, activities, and your favorite beverage.

There is a meal and event planning meeting at 7:00 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug 13. If you have a favorite charity or fund you'd like to sponsor, plan to attend and pick up a dinner or breakfast and generate some money for your cause. It's what Eagles do...PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE.

Lanny Bennett

Thought (Bobcat started it): For something called "common" sense, why is there so little of it around?

(Madam President continued)

I'm leaving today and the sun is finally out.

I'll be sending out meeting times to discuss some of the new ideas that were discussed. We also need to start planning for our anniversary, just two months away. Please let me know if you would like to head the committee or just be on it.

Looking forward to being home and back to visiting my favorite aerie! P.S. spoke too soon, raining hard again.

In closing I would like to leave you with this thought:

Appreciate you as a member, value you as a volunteer, how valuable are YOU?

VOLUNTEER

Fraternally yours,

Vicki

Aurora Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to give each of you who worked on the State Convention a big Thank You! It was the best convention ever, and that was because each of you gave of your time and talents to make sure everything went smoothly and you treated our guests with kindness, consideration, and good service. The food, as always, was top-notch, with those dedicated members who worked so diligently in the kitchen and worked on the floor.

It is too hard to mention everyone, but it was the harmonious working together as an Aerie and Auxiliary that made it such a successful event. Thank you one and all!

Fraternally,

Your Proud Jr. Past State Madam President
Trish Ham
